PREFACE

Dear Readers,

It is with a great pleasure that I announce the Volume 2 (February, 2020) of the Journal of Automation, Electronics and Electrical Engineering JAEEE. This is a scientific journal published by the Kazimierz Pulaski University of Technology and Humanities in Radom. It will come out four times a year and will contain original papers.

It is a journal for researchers and specialists allowing them to share experiences, knowledge and research results concerning all aspects in the field of automation, electronics and electrical engineering. It is an open access journal. It means that research results are available for many readers and allow global exchange of knowledge.

The presented papers are published in English and reviewed by two reviewers (the experts having academic title of a professor or Ph.D.) appointed by Editorial Committee for every paper.

I warmly encourage all the readers to send us their thoughts and opinions on this issue. I also invite researchers to submit papers to be considered for publication by the Journal.

I would like, on behalf of the Scientific Board, to thank the authors for their sizeable contribution to the knowledge in the field of automation, electronics and electrical engineering and creation of this book.

I do hope that the presented papers will pique the interest of the readers and encourage them to publish their research results in this journal.

I wish you a pleasant and useful reading.
